10. Provision regarding the members of the General Committee—

- (a) When a person becomes a member of the General Committee by reason of the office or appointment he holds, his membership shall terminate when he ceases to hold that office or appointment.
- (b) Subject to the preceding clause a member of the General Committee shall cease to be such member if he dies, resigns, becomes of unsound mind, becomes insolvent, is convicted of a criminal offence involving moral turpitude, or is removed by the Central Government or is transferred from Army Headquarters.
- (c) A resignation of membership shall be tendered to the Chairman of the General Committee and shall not take effect until it is accepted on behalf of the committee by the Chairman.
- (d) Any vacancy in the General Committee caused by any of the reasons mentioned in the above sub-clauses shall be filled by nomination, appointment or otherwise as circumstances of the case may require.
- (e) Subject to the above the appointment to the General Committee, the mode of their appointment, their tenure of office and other matters of and incidental thereto shall be determined by bye-laws framed in respect of the same.

11. Conduct of business.—The General Committee may meet together for the conduct of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate its meetings and proceedings as may be determined by the bye-laws. Unless otherwise determined the quorum for the meeting of the General Committee shall be three members (personally present at the meeting). A meeting of the General Committee at which a quorum is present shall be competent to exercise all or any of the functions of the committee. Every matter shall be determined by a majority of votes of the members present and voting on the question. The Secretary or Treasurer shall have no right to vote. In case of equality of votes, the matter shall be decided according to the vote of the Chairman.

12. Management of the Fund.—Subject to any general or special directions given by the Central Government the general management of the affairs of the Fund shall be vested in and rest with the General Committee.

The rates of scholarships, the number of children of each officer to whom, the period for which and the times at which the scholarship will be paid, may be modified by the General Committee but any such modification shall be reported to the Government.

13. Functioning by the General Committee.—The General Committee shall function notwithstanding that any person who is entitled to be a member by reason of his office is not a member for the time being and notwithstanding any other vacancy in the General Committee and no act or proceeding of the General Committee shall be invalid merely by reason of the happening of any of the above events or of any defects in the appointment of any member of the General Committee.

14. Framing of Bye-laws.—The General Committee shall make bye-laws for the regulation, management and any other purpose connected with the execution of the Fund and the trusts thereof and may alter, vary or rescind the same from time to time.

15. Appointment of Committees.—The General Committee may appoint one or more committees as may be considered necessary.

16. Delegation of Powers.—The General Committee may delegate any of its powers to any committee so appointed. The General Committee or any other committee may also delegate any of its powers to one or more of its members so far as such delegation relates, in the opinion of the General Committee or such other committee, as the case may be, to merely ministerial act and involve no discretion or is necessary merely conformable to common usage.

17. Members of the General Committee not entitled to remuneration.—Members of the General Committee or any other committee appointed as aforesaid other than the Secretary or Treasurer shall not be entitled to any remuneration, but shall be entitled to be reimbursed their actual travelling expense in respect of journey to attend the meeting of the General Committee or other committee or journeys undertaken by them for the purpose of the Fund.

18. Appointment of Staff.—A Secretary, Treasurer and such other officers and staff as the General Committee may consider necessary shall be appointed by the general committee and their remuneration and terms of appointment shall be fixed by that committee. The expenditure on the officers and staff shall be met from the Fund.

19. Deposit of Moneys.—All moneys received from the subscribers or other sources shall be deposited in one or more accounts at the State Bank of India or any other scheduled Bank approved by the Central Government.

20. Accounts and Audit.—Regular accounts shall be kept of all moneys and properties belonging to the Fund and shall be audited by a firm of chartered accountants or any other recognised auditor as may be appointed by the General Committee. The auditor shall also certify that the expenditure from the Fund has been correctly incurred in accordance with the objects of the Fund. Copies of the annual accounts of the Fund duly audited and certified by the auditor of the Fund shall be submitted to the Government every year. The accounts of the Fund shall be open for a test check by the Comptroller and Auditor General of India at his discretion.

21. Contracts.—All contracts relating to the administration of the Fund shall be executed in the name of the General Committee of the Fund and by either the Chairman or the Vice Chairman and shall also be signed by the Secretary or Treasurer.

22. Use of the Fund.—It shall be lawful for the General Committee to expend the moneys in the Fund for the objects of the Fund as mentioned above. The credit balance left with the Fund will be merged with the PRC Army Officers Contributory Education Fund.

23. The General Committee may request the Central Government to direct the Treasurer of Charitable Endowments for India under Section 10 of the Charitable Endowments Act, 1890 (6 of 1890) to sell or otherwise dispose of any property of the Fund vested in him and with the sanction of the Central Government to invest the proceeds of the sale or other disposal of the property as well as any moneys or property not immediately required to be used for the objects of the Fund in any one or more of the modes of investment for the time being authorised by law for the investment of trust moneys, as may be proposed by the General Committee and specified in the direction.

24. Receipt of additional Endowments.—The General Committee may receive any additional endowments, donations or other contributions in augmentation of any of the moneys and properties of the Fund or for general purposes of the Fund. It may also receive endowments, donations or other contributions for any special purpose connected with this scheme not inconsistent with or calculated to impede the due working of the provisions of this scheme.

THE SCHEDULE

A cash endowment of Rs. 30,000 from the Chief of the Army Staff will be invested in fixed deposit with the State Bank of India, New Delhi.
